THE

SOUTH-CAROLINA GAZETTE,

Containing the freſheſt Advices, Foreign and Domeſtick.

Monday, December 29th, 1746. [Numb. 663]

There has been an Action on the 11th of October, N.S. in the Netherlands, between the Allied Army and M Saxe's, to the Diſadvantage of the former; the Particulars are long, but will be inſerted in our next. The Caſtles of Namurt (which was the laſt Town left of the Dutch Barrier) is now in the Poſſeſſion of the French.

LONDON, October 7.

THE Queen Dowager of Spain had near Six Millions in St. George's Bank at Genoa, which has been ſeiz'd by the victorious Troops in that Country.

The Eaſex Frigate, Page, arrived from Leghorn, ſpoke with Admiral Medley, on the 12th of September, who was then cruizing off Cadiz.

October 9. We hear, that the Rt. Hon. the Lords of the Treaſury have intruſted Mr. Samuel Smith, of Cateaton Street, with the Care of Tranſporting ſuch of the Rebels, whoſe Lives his Majeſty, in his Mercy, may pleaſe to ſpare.

We hear that ſeveral Men of War will ſoon be ordered to Antigua, and that all thoſe ſtationed there at preſent will be every one ordered home.

Admiral Perry Mayne ſails ſoon to Jamaica, with a Squadron, to relieve Admiral Davers, who is to return home.

And Commodore Legge goes on board the ſaid Squadron, for the Leeward-Iſlands, to relieve Commodore Lee.

The Dragon Man of War, Capt Frankland, is appointed to carry Governor Greenville to Barbados.

October 11. Our G——ls in not allowing the Name of a Battle to the Affair on Tueſday ſe'nnight laſt, are but even with the French, who call the Action at Ramillies, in 1706, a Rencontre only; becauſe the whole Armies were not engag'd —— But the Victory at Ramillies was early in the Summer, which gave the Duke of Marlborough a Courſe of Succeſſes, in Conſequence of it, beyond what M Saxe can expect at this advanced Seaſon.

October 14. There are ſeveral Letters which mention, that an Engliſh Man of War has taken ſome Genoeſe and Neapolitan Veſſels, with 1200 Spaniſh and Neapolitan Troops on board.

We have certain Advice from Falmouth, of the 9th Inſtant, that 4 Tranſports of Admiral Leſtock's Fleet, were arrived there, and give an Account, that the Troops under General Sinclair landed the 21ſt of September, O.S. at Quimperlay, and march'd directly to Port l'Orient, and was before it 5 Days, but they reimbark'd on the 28th; and that on the laſt Inſtant, a violent Gale of Wind came on, in which ſeveral of the Tranſports left their Anchors, it being foul Ground, and the whole Fleet was obliged to put to Sea; and the above 4 Ships being ſeparated from the reſt of the Fleet, made the beſt of their Way to Falmouth.

They write from the Hague, that an Expreſs was arrived there from Italy, with the important News, that his Sardinian Majeſty had forced the Paſs of Ventimiglia on the 9th Inſt N.S. after an obſtinate Defence, and that 2000 Spaniſh and French Troops poſted there were for the moſt part either killed or taken Priſoners. At the Departure of the Expreſs the King was but three Marches from Villa Franca.

We hear that General Folliot will be appointed Governor of Gibraltar, in the Room of General Hargrave, and will ſoon ſet out for that Place.

On Thurſday laſt an Expreſs was ſent to Plymouth, with Orders for the Guards who had diſembark'd, to embark again directly, and join Admiral Leſtock, which 'tis thought they have done by this Time.

Johnſon's Regiment ſuffered extremely in the Battle of Liege, which is the 3d Time that brave and diſtinguiſhed Regiment has been cut to Pieces within theſe 4 Years.

The laſt Letters from Naples ſay, that they have been very agreeably ſurprized with the Arrival of 1200 Spaniſh Troops from Barcelona, and the Aſſurances given by his Catholick Majeſty, of his ſending 9000 Foot and 2000 Horſe more immediately.

October 16. The young French King of Spain, by ſo finely duping our Pol——ns, as to amuſe them with Hopes of a Treaty while he ſent Reinforcements to Naples, has given us a Specimen of what we are to expect from the new Miſſion of Don Benj—n, the Cow—in monger.

We hear that in a ſhort Time will be publiſhed, beautifully printed on a large Letter for the Uſe of weak Eyes, and in a very ſmall portable Volume, 'A Compleat Hiſtory of all the Advantages which Great Britain has gain'd, at a vaſt Expence, by Negociations with Foreign Powers for Thirty Years paſt.'

We learn from Vienna, that it is certain there will be very ſoon a conſiderable Force aſſembled in the Kingdom of Bohemia, General Wallaſt having ſet out for Prague, in order to aſſiſt Pr. Lobkowitz in putting that Country in a Poſture of Defence. Several Regiments are alſo marching from Hungary into Moravia, where another Army is to be form'd under Marſhal Traun.

October 18. By a Letter from Flanders we are told, that the whole Loſs of Engliſh, kill'd and miſſing, at the Battle in Flanders, is no more than 360 Men.

They write from Geneva of the 21ſt Sept. N.S. that they have certain Advices from the Army in Italy, that the Auſtrian and Piedmonteſe Generals have already formed a Plan for invading Dauphiny and Provence with all their Forces; and that the Execution of it depended only on the Deciſion of this ſingle Queſtion, 'Whether the King of Sardinia ſhould concur therein as a Principal or an Auxiliary?'

October 21. We hear, that Notice was Yeſterday given to Ad—l M——s, that he muſt this Day receive Sentence of Death for his Conduct in the Action off T——a. —— The A——l is about 70 Years of Age, and it is generally thought will have his Remainder of Life given him after this neceſſary Formality, which is the Conſequence of a SPEEDY and EFFECTUAL C——t-M——l.

Laſt Night it was ſtrongly reported, that the King of Sardinia, with 17,000 Auſtrians and Piedmonteſe, had actually enter'd Provence at the Heels of the French and Spaniards.

Private Letters from Madrid of the 11th Inſtant, adviſe, that a new Treaty of Alliance, offenſive and defenſive, between France and Spain, is concluded and ſign'd.

By Advices of the 16th Inſtant from Duſſeldorp, it is ſaid that the Elector Palatine is gathering his Forces together, hiring new ones, and compleating his old Regiments.

There are likewiſe Letters from Berlin, which ſay that the Pruſſian Troops are again in Motion; and it is tho't, if the Weather don't prove too ſevere, will take the Route of Bohemia.

The Court-Martial upon General Oglethorpe having finiſh'd their Report, the ſame was laid before his Majeſty, who was graciouſly pleaſed to confirm the Sentence of the ſaid Court Martial, by which that General is honourably acquitted.

October 23. The War with Spain, which a few vigorous Meaſures cloſely purſued, might have ſoon put an End to before the Rupture with France, was declar'd ſeven Years ago this Day —— How is the Glory of our Arms fallen!

Yeſterday the Court-Martial met at Deptford, when the Preſident pronounced Sentence againſt Admiral Mathews, which was, that he was rendered incapable of ſerving in his Majeſty's Royal Navy for the future. After which, Admiral Mathews deſired the Court's Leave to have a Copy of their Minutes, but he was anſwer'd that he muſt apply to the Lords of the Admiralty for them.

We are aſſured that is was the Effect of a great deal of Conſultation and Debate, that the Sentence we mentioned in our laſt was mitigated to Incapacity, ſuch Notice as we there ſpoke of having been actually given.

By a Scheme concerted between the Courts of Vienna and Turin, a large Body of Irregulars are to live at Diſcretion in the fine Country of Provence this Winter.

The French Colonels, whose Regiments consist of but one Battalion each, have every one receiv'd Orders to raise another by the Month of March next, left the Conferences at Breda should not succeed

The Courts of Vienna and Turin seem to have so little Dependance on what is doing at Breda, that they begin to talk of Plans for the next Campaign; and at the former Place they say, that such a one is in a Manner already formed, as must greatly harrass and divide the Common Enemy, and produce a glorious Campaign in case the Breda Conferences prove fruitless.

Plymouth, October 21. His Majesty's Ship the Nottingham has brought in hither the Mars, a French Man of War of 64 Guns and 550 Men, which she met with off Cape Clear, and took after an Engagement of Two Hours, wherein the Nottingham lost but 3 or 4 Men, and the Mars 40. This Ship was parted from the Duke d'Anville's Squadron by a violent Storm off the Isle of Sable, about six Weeks since.

London, October 28. The Diversion intended to be made of the French Army, while the Imperialists and Piedmontese enter'd Provence, is in great Likelihood of becoming a Diversion to the whole French Nation

We are credibly informed, that his Majesty has been pleased to order a General Pardon to be prepared for passing the Great Seal of Great Britain, whereby his Majesty extends his Mercy, on Consideration of Transportation for Life, to all those common Men amongst the Rebels, amounting to 19 in 20, who by drawing Lots were preserved from Trial.

Extract of a Letter from on board his Majesty's Ship the Princessa at Spithead October 26th.

THE following Particulars may be depended on as Facts, which as an Eye Witness I can faithfully relate, and I have not Leisure, Inclination, or Capacity, to embellish them. October 1st, the whole Fleet unmoor'd, in order to sail to Quiberon — On the 2d, our Men of War gave Chace to, and drove ashore, a very fine French Ship of 64 Guns. — On the 3d, we came to an Anchor in Quiberon Bay. — On the 4th, the Admiral summon'd the Place to surrender, but instead of submitting, the People fled and drove away their Cattle. — October 5, 6, and 7, our Forces being debark'd on a Kind of Island (the Isthmus being over flowed at High-Water) the Seamen plunder'd all the Coasts, and by some Accident the French Ship before mentioned took Fire, and tho' the Admiral sent a Party of his own Seamen out of his Ship, it was with some Difficulty they sav'd 10 Pieces of fine Brass Cannon, and some small Arms — October 8th, the Boats from the Fleet attack'd and made themselves Masters of a small Island, and took a Captain and 35 Men Prisoners of War — October 9th and 10th, the Forces embark'd again, and the Seamen burned several Places on shore, and all their Vessels and small Craft. — October 11th, we got 8 Pieces more of Brass Cannon (24 Pounders) out of the Prize — October 12, the Fleet unmoor'd, and came to an Anchor under the little Island before mentioned. — October 13, our Boats, covered by the light Vessels, made themselves Masters of another small Island, in which there was a Castle, the Garison of which, with an Officer who commanded it 40 Years, surrender'd Prisoners of War. — October 14 and 15, spent in mining and blowing up the Places we had taken — October 16, the whole Fleet unmoor'd, and got under Sail. — October 25th, by the Blessing of God, arrived safely here. It is impossible for me to describe the Terror of the French, the Pannick struck by our Appearance, and the Mischief we've done them.

Five other capital Ships, besides the Princessa, are arrived at Spithead from Cape Quiberon; and the other Men of War and Transports are, we hear, gone for Cork in Ireland, Preparations being made there for their Reception.

London, October 30. We hear that a certain C—mm—e now in the West I——s, will on his Return be made an Ad—l, for the great Care he took of his Majesty's Ships, when IN DANGER from a Fleet of French Merchantmen!

Kensington, October 29. This Day the Right Hon William Earl of Harrington having resigned the Seals into the King's Hands, his Majesty was pleased to appoint the Right Hon Philip Earl of Chesterfield to be one of his Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State.

London, November 1. We hear that several Removes will be made in the Ministry before the Meeting of the Parliament, which will be on the 18th Instant.

All our Letters from Paris are full of the Preparations making for the Execution of a grand Enterprize this Winter, which we are told will distress the Court, if not the People of London, as much as that of last Winter.

We hear that the Squadron under Admiral Anson will put to Sea forthwith, being actually taking in a fresh Supply of Provisions.

CHARLES-TOWN, December 29.

We hear from Providence, that on Saturday Evening the 29th of November, the BEGGAR's OPERA was acted with Applause at their Play House in Fort street, by a Sett of the Inhabitants, for the Entertainment of the Town: His Excellency John Tinker, Esq; (to whose only Administration they owe their Deliverance from Gothick Rudeness and Tyranny, their Improvement in Trade, Politeness and every honest Art) was pleased to honour it with his Presence, and expressed a particular Satisfaction at the good Performance of the Actors. Tickets sold for a Dollar each. As their Play-House was but lately finished, and set off with variety of Scenes and Decorations, several other Plays are to be acted this Winter.

Letters from Providence say, that on the 7th Instant they had Advice of the Privateer Schooner Recovery's being taken, by a small French Privateer belonging to Petit Guaves with one Gun only; this is the Schooner belonging to Capt. Richard Thompson that took the St. Augustine Pay-Vessel, which brought so much Treasure into Providence some Time ago. The Reason of her being taken so shamefully was owing to the C——e of the Captain (William Walter Humphreys) who ran into his Cabbin, gave Orders to Mr. Darvill his Lieutenant to strike to the French King, and so discouraged a few brave Fellows, who would undoubtedly taken and humbled the Monsieurs! We hear, that Humphreys will be rewarded with a wooden Sword; That the Recovery and the French Privateer, with another small Prize laden with Rum, Sugar, &c are taken by the Clinton Privateer of New York, Capt. Beavan, and sent into Providence; That Capts. Thompson and Pursell have retaken a Snow from Whitehaven for Virginia, (with a valuable Cargo for the Indian Trade) whereof one Harris was Master; That on the 11th Instant, Capt Gordon in the Privateer Schooner Confidence belonging to this Port, carried two small Prizes into Providence; And that on the 1st died there one Mrs Sims, in the 108th Year of her Age, who was brought thither in her Infancy, and retain'd her Senses and Reason 'till her Death; This is such a Voucher for the Healthfulness of that Climate, as very few of our Colonies or Islands can produce.
